

WHAT SHELTERS NEED MOST

Homeless shelters are often in need of certain items that are always in high demand. Here are a few categories to help.

1 TOILETRIES

Homeless shelters are often in need of essential items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, and deodorant. The unhoused need these items more than ever to stay clean.

2 BATH SUPPLIES

Shelters need other bath supplies the unhoused use to stay clean. These include items such as towels, washcloths, facial tissues and toilet paper.

3 FEMININE HYGIENE

People often forget that the unhoused need feminine hygiene products such as pads and tampons. The women in the shelters need these items and they may be difficult to come by.

4 GROOMING

The people in the shelters need to stay groomed and well taken care of, which is why it is important to donate items such as combs, brushes, razors, shaving cream and nail care kits.

5 BABY ITEMS

Those with children in the shelters are often in need of the necessities of their young ones. Important items to donate include diapers, baby wipes, baby lotion and formula.

6 CLOTHING

People always think to donate traditional clothing items, such as shirts and sweaters but often forget to donate necessities such as socks, underwear and gloves. These items are often in high demand at shelters so they are very important to donate.
